

The Journey of Electricity

Pylons

Electricity travels from the Power Station on overhead lines, which are kept above the ground by large metal structures, called Pylons.

They are extremely dangerous to climb. NIE places barbed wire around the base of every pylon and displays a yellow 'Danger of Death' sign to remind people their life is in danger if they try to climb the pylon.

Never try to climb a pylon.