

The Journey of Electricity

Your Home

Finally the electricity is ready to come into your home. If you live in a town or city the electricity will come in through an underground cable to your meter box. If you live in the countryside the electricity will come into the house through overhead wires at the undereaves part of the roof.

Remember – Always Think Safe, Act Safe, Be Safe!